Margaret Atwood's Quotes to Inspire you Towards Success

- I would like to be the air that inhabits you for a moment only. I would like to be that unnoticed and that necessary.
- Another belief of mine: that everyone else my age is an adult, whereas I am merely in disguise.
- Ignoring isn't the same as ignorance, you have to work at it.
- I don't want to see anyone. I lie in the bedroom with the curtains drawn and nothingness washing over me like a sluggish wave. Whatever is happening to me is my own fault. I have done something wrong, something so huge I can't even see it, something that's drowning me. I am inadequate and stupid, without worth. I might as well be dead.
